

TV

SPEAKING LESSON

DREAM VACATION

by EngMaterials

Name 5 words related to holidays.

Answer the questions.

- 1) Where did you go on your last trip? Talk about where you went and what you did.
- 2) What is the best place for a vacation in your country? Why is it good?
- 3) How long should a vacation be? How long does it take you to really relax?

Read the comments. Match the underlined phrases with their definitions.

We're really living it up on this trip! We're trying all the nice restaurants and doing fun activities. Do you like to treat yourself and spend a bit more money when you're on vacation?

We didn't plan every single thing we're going to do. We're just playing it by ear and deciding as we go. Do you prefer to have a detailed plan for your vacations, or do you like to be more spontaneous?

This little island is a breath of fresh air. It's so much nicer and calmer than I expected. Have you ever been somewhere that was a pleasant surprise for you?

We want to see as much as possible, so we're doing this trip on a shoestring. We're finding cheap places to eat and staying in simple hotels. Do you try to save money when you travel?

I've been so stressed lately. I really need this vacation to have a change of scenery and just relax. Do you agree that vacations are important for relaxing?

After a few days here, I can finally let my hair down. I don't have to worry about work or anything stressful. Do you find it easy to relax and forget your worries on vacation?

- 1) _____ - to go to a different or more interesting place, often to feel refreshed or break from a routine. It implies a change in environment.
- 2) _____ - to have a very good time, often involving spending money, going to parties.
- 3) _____ - to relax and enjoy yourself freely; to become less formal and serious.
- 4) _____ - something new, refreshing, or different that makes things feel better or more exciting. It can refer to a person, an idea, or a situation.
- 5) _____ - to decide how to deal with a situation as it develops, rather than planning in advance. To be flexible and adapt to circumstances.
- 6) _____ - doing something with very little money.

Answer the questions from the comments.

We're really living it up on this trip! We're trying all the nice restaurants and doing fun activities. Do you like to treat yourself and spend a bit more money when you're on vacation?

We didn't plan every single thing we're going to do. We're just playing it by ear and deciding as we go. Do you prefer to have a detailed plan for your vacations, or do you like to be more spontaneous?

This little island is a breath of fresh air. It's so much nicer and calmer than I expected. Have you ever been somewhere that was a pleasant surprise for you?

We want to see as much as possible, so we're doing this trip on a shoestring. We're finding cheap places to eat and staying in simple hotels. Do you try to save money when you travel?

I've been so stressed lately. I really need this vacation to have a change of scenery and just relax. Do you agree that vacations are important for relaxing?

After a few days here, I can finally let my hair down. I don't have to worry about work or anything stressful. Do you find it easy to relax and forget your worries on vacation?

- 1) Have a change of scenery - to go to a different or more interesting place, often to feel refreshed or break from a routine. It implies a change in environment.
- 2) Live it up - to have a very good time, often involving spending money, going to parties.
- 3) Let your hair down - to relax and enjoy yourself freely; to become less formal and serious.
- 4) A breath of fresh air - something new, refreshing, or different that makes things feel better or more exciting. It can refer to a person, an idea, or a situation.
- 5) Play it by ear - to decide how to deal with a situation as it develops, rather than planning in advance. To be flexible and adapt to circumstances.
- 6) On a shoestring - doing something with very little money.

Complete the statements with the correct words.
Do you agree with these statements? Explain your answer.

I'm the person who always needs to have a change of (1) scenery for my vacations. I can't go to the same place twice!

I'm the person who likes to (2) live it up a little on vacation. I think it's the perfect time to enjoy nice food and maybe buy a special souvenir.

I'm the person who really wants to let my hair (3) down on vacation. I just want to relax and forget about all my worries from home.

I'm the person who usually travels on a (4) shoestring. I like to find cheap ways to see new places and save money.

I'm the person who likes to (5) play it by ear when I'm on vacation. I don't like too many plans, I prefer to decide what to do each day.

I'm the person who really needs my vacations to be a (6) breath of fresh air because my normal life can be a bit boring.

a play

c scenery

e down

b shoestring

d live

f breath

Describe the photos using the idioms below.
You can make negative or interrogative sentences.

play it by ear

on a shoestring

let your hair down

live it up

have a change of scenery

a breath of fresh air

Unscramble the words and answer the questions.

- Do you like to let your hair down completely when you're on holiday, or do you still prefer to have a strict schedule? What do you do to relax?
- When going to a new city, is it better to have a clear plan or to play it by ear to discover new things?
- If you had a lot of money and wanted to live it up on your next vacation, where would you go and what luxurious things would you do?
- After a long and stressful period, what kind of short trip or activity could be a breath of fresh air for you?
- Have you ever travelled on a shoestring? What was your experience like, and what tips would you give for a budget trip?
- What kind of vacation do you usually prefer when you want to have a change of scenery? Do you prefer mountains, the beach, or a big city?

Imagine you have won a small travel prize! You can choose one of the amazing places for a 4-day, 3-night vacation. Look at the photos and read the descriptions carefully. Choose the place that sounds most interesting to you. Explain your choice. Then follow instructions after it.

1

Kyoto, Japan

Ancient capital with beautiful temples, traditional gardens, and geisha districts. Very spiritual and calm, but also modern.

Kinkaku-ji

Fushimi Inari-taisha

What to do :

- ✓ visit historical temples (Kinkaku-ji, Fushimi Inari-taisha).
- ✓ explore bamboo forests.
- ✓ experience a traditional tea ceremony.
- ✓ try delicious Japanese food (sushi, ramen).

ramen

tea ceremony

2

Reykjavik, Iceland

The capital of Iceland, known for its unique volcanic landscapes, geothermal pools. It's very modern and eco-friendly.

Blue Lagoon
(geothermal spa)

Hallgrímskirkja church

What to do :

- ✓ relax in the Blue Lagoon (geothermal spa).
- ✓ visit Hallgrímskirkja church.
- ✓ explore the city's vibrant art and music scene.
- ✓ go on a Golden Circle tour (geysers, waterfalls).

waterfall

geysers

3

Amsterdam, Netherlands

A charming city with beautiful canals, historic houses, world-class museums, and a relaxed, bike-friendly atmosphere.

Anne Frank House

Van Gogh Museum

Jordaan district

stroopwafels

What to do :

- ✓ visit the Anne Frank House.
- ✓ explore the Van Gogh Museum.
- ✓ walk through the Jordaan district.
- ✓ try Dutch cheese and stroopwafels.

4

Siem Reap,
Cambodia

The gateway to the ancient temples of Angkor Wat, surrounded by lush jungle. A spiritual and historically rich destination.

temples of Angkor
Wat

floating village on Tonlé Sap Lake

Khmer cuisine

Apsara dance show

What to do :

- ✓ explore the temples of Angkor Wat, Angkor Thom, and Bayon at sunrise/sunset.
- ✓ visit a floating village on Tonlé Sap Lake.
- ✓ enjoy Khmer cuisine.
- ✓ watch an Apsara dance show.

My Dream Vacation Planner

Now it's time to plan your perfect 4-day, 3-night vacation! Think about what you are going to do each day. Use the idioms from the lesson.

Think about these things:

- Accommodation: Where are you going to stay? (e.g., a hotel, a hostel, an Airbnb)
- Activities: What are you going to do each day? (Choose 2–3 main activities for each day)
- Food: What local food or drinks are you going to try?
- Transport: How are you going to get around the city/country?
- Mood/Feeling: What kind of experience are you going to have? (e.g., relaxing, adventurous, cultural)

I chose Kyoto, Japan, because I am going to have a change of scenery and experience a very different culture.

Read the situations and think about the best solution. Explain your answer.

Mark feels bored and uninspired by his daily routine. He goes to the same office, does the same work, and sees the same people every day. He needs to have a change of scenery, but his job doesn't allow for much travel.

How can Mark find a change of scenery without quitting his job?

A group of friends wants to celebrate their graduation with a trip. However, they don't have much money. They want to live it up and have an unforgettable experience, but they have to do it on a shoestring.

How can the friends have a great time and celebrate without spending a lot of money?

Sarah has a very important work trip coming up. She's been working long hours and feels tense. She knows she needs to let her hair down after the meetings, but she's not sure how to relax in an unfamiliar city.

How can Sarah relax and let her hair down after her stressful work trip?

A group of friends decided to go on a road trip, but they didn't plan anything. They don't have a set itinerary or any hotel reservations. They want to play it by ear, but they're also worried about missing out on the best sights and experiences.

What are the pros and cons of playing it by ear on a road trip? How can the friends balance spontaneity with planning?

Lisa is traveling to visit her family, but her flight has a long, unexpected layover in a city she's never been to. She didn't budget for this extra time, so she's traveling on a shoestring. She wants to make the most of her time, but she doesn't want to spend a lot of money.

How can Lisa enjoy her unexpected layover without spending much money?