

Fashion & First Impressions

Wordlist

Check

www.engmaterial.com

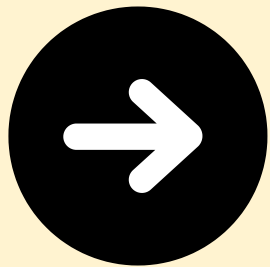

wordlist

- have a sense of style – to have a natural ability to choose clothes or design things in a way that looks attractive and fashionable
- keep up with the latest trends – to stay informed about and follow new fashions, ideas, or developments
- come across as (confident / rude / friendly) – to appear or give a certain impression to others in the way you behave or speak
- have a biased opinion – to have an opinion that is unfairly influenced by personal preferences or prejudices
- reflect someone's personality – to show or express a person's character, tastes, or individuality
- stick to a particular style – to continue using or following one specific way of dressing, designing, or doing something without changing it vocabulary check to continue using or following one specific way of dressing, designing, or doing something without changing it to stay informed about and follow new fashions, ideas, or developments

to have an opinion that is unfairly influenced by personal preferences or prejudices to show or express a person's character, tastes, or individuality to appear or give a certain impression to others in the way you behave or speak to have a natural ability to choose clothes or design things in a way that looks attractive and fashionable