

Emma loves spring! And you?

Reading skills and memory development

You are going to read a text. Look at the pictures. Can you predict the topic of the text?

Optional task

Someone erased 10 words! Can you guess the missing words?

Yesterday ___ the first day of spring, and Emma had the craziest day ever! In the morning, the sun was shining, and the _____ was warm. Emma jumped out of bed and put on her new jacket. She was excited because winter was over, and she wanted to enjoy the fresh spring air.

First, Emma went to the park ___ her best friend, Lily. The trees had new green leaves, and colorful flowers were blooming everywhere. Emma loved the smell of fresh _____. She picked a small bouquet of daisies and tulips for her mom.

In the park, Emma and Lily saw birds in a nest. "Look! The birds are singing!" Emma said. They also saw a butterfly flying around and a _____ buzzing near the flowers. Emma ran on the green grass and Lily flew a kite. The wind was perfect!

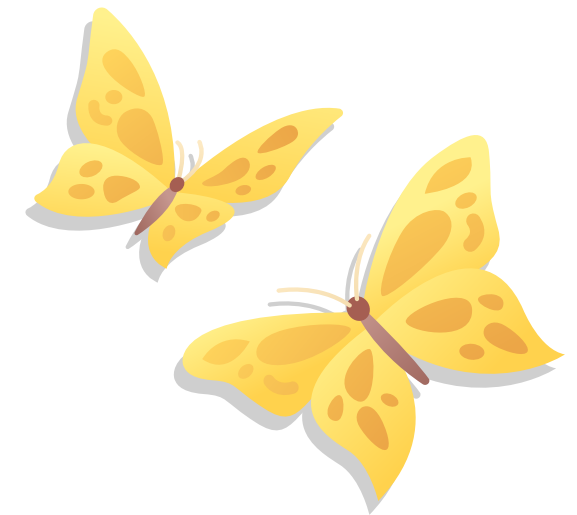

At lunchtime, Emma's family ____ a picnic by the lake. They brought sandwiches, fresh strawberries, and lemonade. Emma loved eating outside in the sunshine. She even saw a rabbit hopping near the trees!

_____ lunch, Emma and her brother Tom decided to fly their new kite. But suddenly, the wind got too strong! The kite flew high and got stuck in a tree. "Oh no!" Tom said. Emma laughed and said, "Spring is always full of surprises!"

Later, it started to rain a little, so Emma put on her rain_____ and jumped in puddles. She loved the smell of rain in spring. When the rain stopped, they saw a beautiful _____ in the sky.

In the evening, Emma was tired but happy. She sat in the garden and watched the sunset. The sky was pink, orange, and purple. "This was a crazy but fun day!" Emma said with a smile.

Spring was her _____ season, and she couldn't wait for more sunny and colorful days!

Read the text. Think about the best title for it. Be creative!

Yesterday was the first day of spring, and Emma had the craziest day ever! In the morning, the sun was shining, and the weather was warm. Emma jumped out of bed and put on her new jacket. She was excited because winter was over, and she wanted to enjoy the fresh spring air.

First, Emma went to the park with her best friend, Lily. The trees had new green leaves, and colorful flowers were blooming everywhere. Emma loved the smell of fresh flowers. She picked a small bouquet of daisies and tulips for her mom.

In the park, Emma and Lily saw birds in a nest. "Look! The birds are singing!" Emma said. They also saw a butterfly flying around and a bee buzzing near the flowers. Emma ran on the green grass and Lily flew a kite. The wind was perfect!

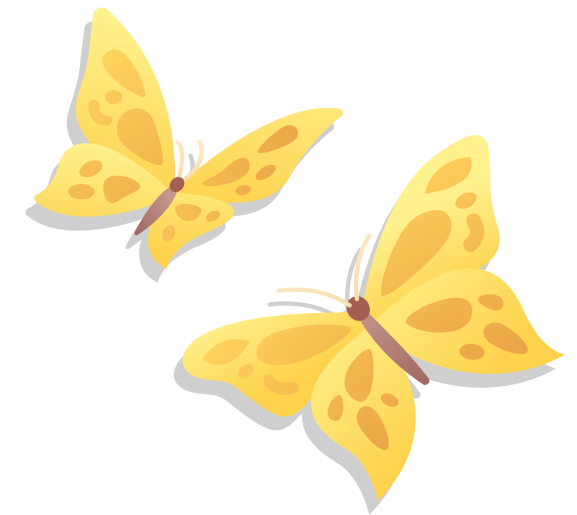

At lunchtime, Emma's family had a picnic by the lake. They brought sandwiches, fresh strawberries, and lemonade. Emma loved eating outside in the sunshine. She even saw a rabbit hopping near the trees!

After lunch, Emma and her brother Tom decided to fly their new kite. But suddenly, the wind got too strong! The kite flew high and got stuck in a tree. "Oh no!" Tom said. Emma laughed and said, "Spring is always full of surprises!"

Later, it started to rain a little, so Emma put on her rain boots and jumped in puddles. She loved the smell of rain in spring. When the rain stopped, they saw a beautiful rainbow in the sky.

In the evening, Emma was tired but happy. She sat in the garden and watched the sunset. The sky was pink, orange, and purple. "This was a crazy but fun day!" Emma said with a smile.

Spring was her favorite season, and she couldn't wait for more sunny and colorful days!

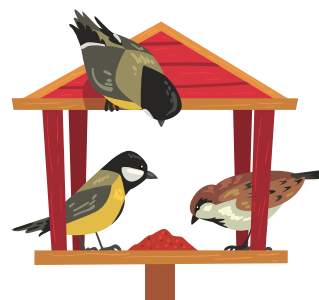

Tick the activities Emma did yesterday. What is your favourite activity in spring? What activities do you dislike? What would you like to try?

☐

walk in the park

☐

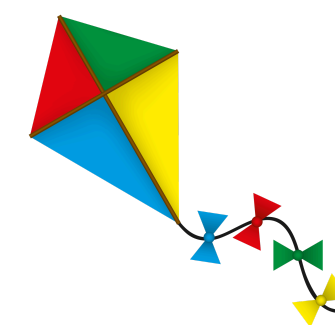

ride a bike

☐

feed birds

☐

decorate easter eggs

☐

fly a kite

☐

have a picnic

☐

play frisbee

☐

make a fruit smoothie

☐

draw with chalks

☐

play outdoor games

☐

bake a cake

☐

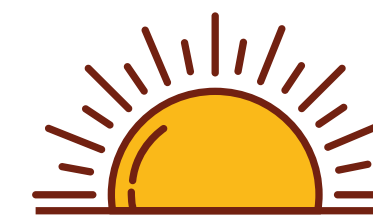

make crafts

☐

read a new book

☐

jump in puddles

☐

watch the sunset

Scan the QR code and choose True/False. If the sentence is false, explain why.

SCAN HERE

Read the questions. Underline the answers in the text with the same colours.

Yesterday was the first day of spring, and Emma had the craziest day ever! In the morning, the sun was shining, and the weather was warm. Emma jumped out of bed and put on her new jacket. She was excited because winter was over, and she wanted to enjoy the fresh spring air.

First, Emma went to the park with her best friend, Lily. The trees had new green leaves, and colorful flowers were blooming everywhere. Emma loved the smell of fresh flowers. She picked a small bouquet of daisies and tulips for her mom.

In the park, Emma and Lily saw birds in a nest. "Look! The birds are singing!" Emma said. They also saw a butterfly flying around and a bee buzzing near the flowers. Emma ran on the green grass and Lily flew a kite. The wind was perfect!

At lunchtime, Emma's family had a picnic by the lake. They brought sandwiches, fresh strawberries, and lemonade. Emma loved eating outside in the sunshine. She even saw a rabbit hopping near the trees!

After lunch, Emma and her brother Tom decided to fly their new kite. But suddenly, the wind got too strong! The kite flew high and got stuck in a tree. "Oh no!" Tom said. Emma laughed and said, "Spring is always full of surprises!"

Later, it started to rain a little, so Emma put on her rain boots and jumped in puddles. She loved the smell of rain in spring. When the rain stopped, they saw a beautiful rainbow in the sky.

In the evening, Emma was tired but happy. She sat in the garden and watched the sunset. The sky was pink, orange, and purple. "This was a crazy but fun day!" Emma said with a smile.

Spring was her favorite season, and she couldn't wait for more sunny and colorful days!

- What was the weather in the morning?
- What did Emma do after she jumped out of bed?
- What did Emma do at lunchtime?
- What did Emma do when it started to rain?
- What did they see in the sky after the rain?
- What did Emma do in the evening?

Do not look at the text. Can you complete the sentences?

In the morning, the sun was shining, and ...

Do not look at the text. Can you complete the sentences?

Emma jumped out of bed and

Do not look at the text. Can you complete the sentences?

At lunchtime, Emma's family ...

Do not look at the text. Can you complete the sentences?

Later, it started to rain a little, so Emma

Do not look at the text. Can you complete the sentences?

When the rain stopped, they ...

Do not look at the text. Can you complete the sentences?

She sat in the garden and ...

Optional task

Can you complete the gaps with your own ideas? Be creative!

Yesterday was the first day of spring, and _____ had the craziest day ever! In the morning, the sun was shining, and the weather was warm. _____ jumped out of bed and put on her new _____. _____ was excited because winter was over, and she wanted to enjoy the fresh spring air.

First, _____ with her best friend, _____. The trees had new green leaves, and colorful flowers were blooming everywhere. _____ loved _____. _____.

In the park, _____. "Look! _____" _____ said. They also saw a butterfly flying around and a bee buzzing near the flowers. _____ ran on the green grass and _____ flew a kite. The wind was perfect!

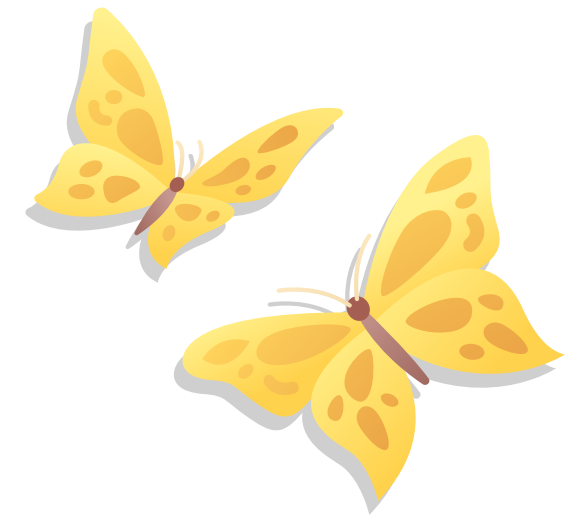

At lunchtime, _____. They _____. _____ loved _____.

After lunch, _____. _____.

Later, the weather was _____, so _____ put on _____ and _____. She loved _____.

In the evening, _____ was tired but happy. _____. "This was a crazy but fun day!" _____ said with a smile.

Spring was _____ favorite season, and _____ couldn't wait for more sunny and colorful days!

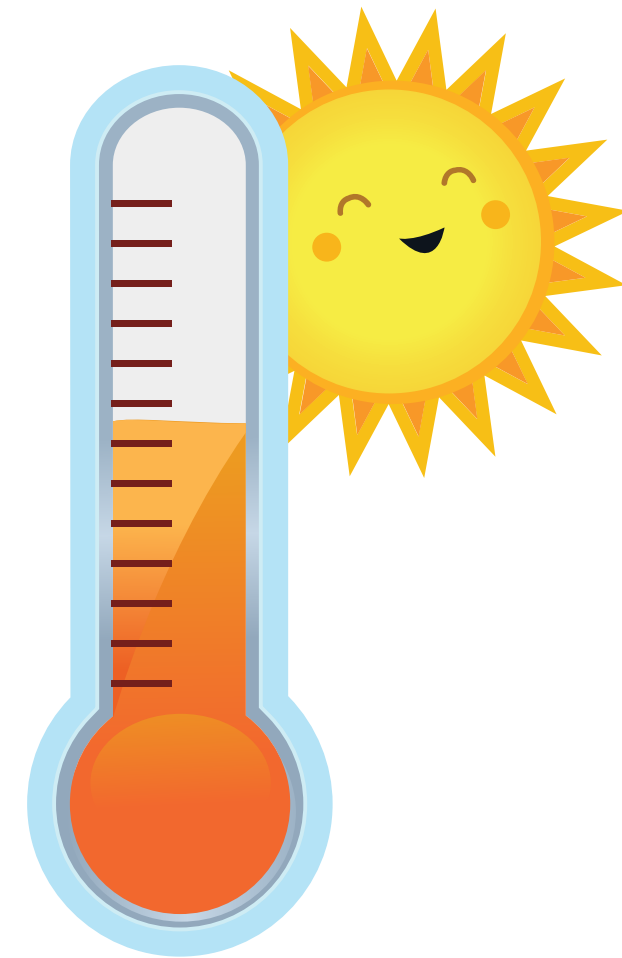

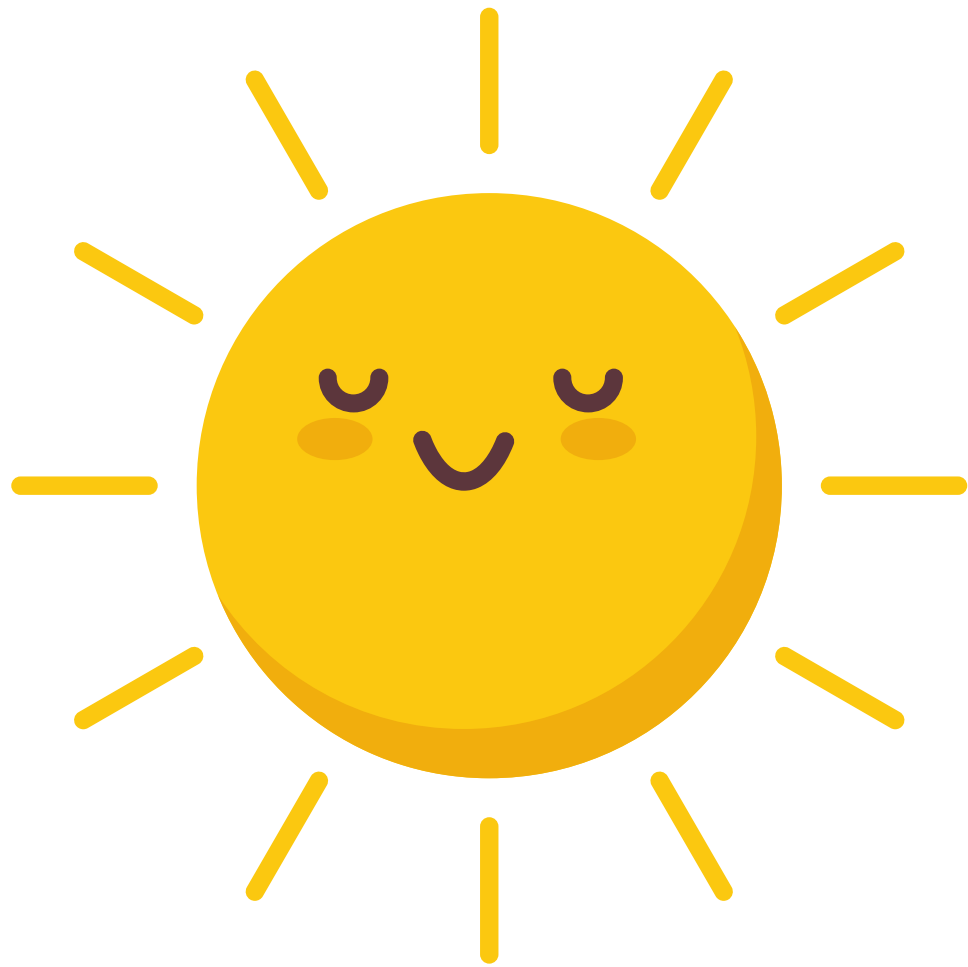

Scan the QR code and put the sentences in order.

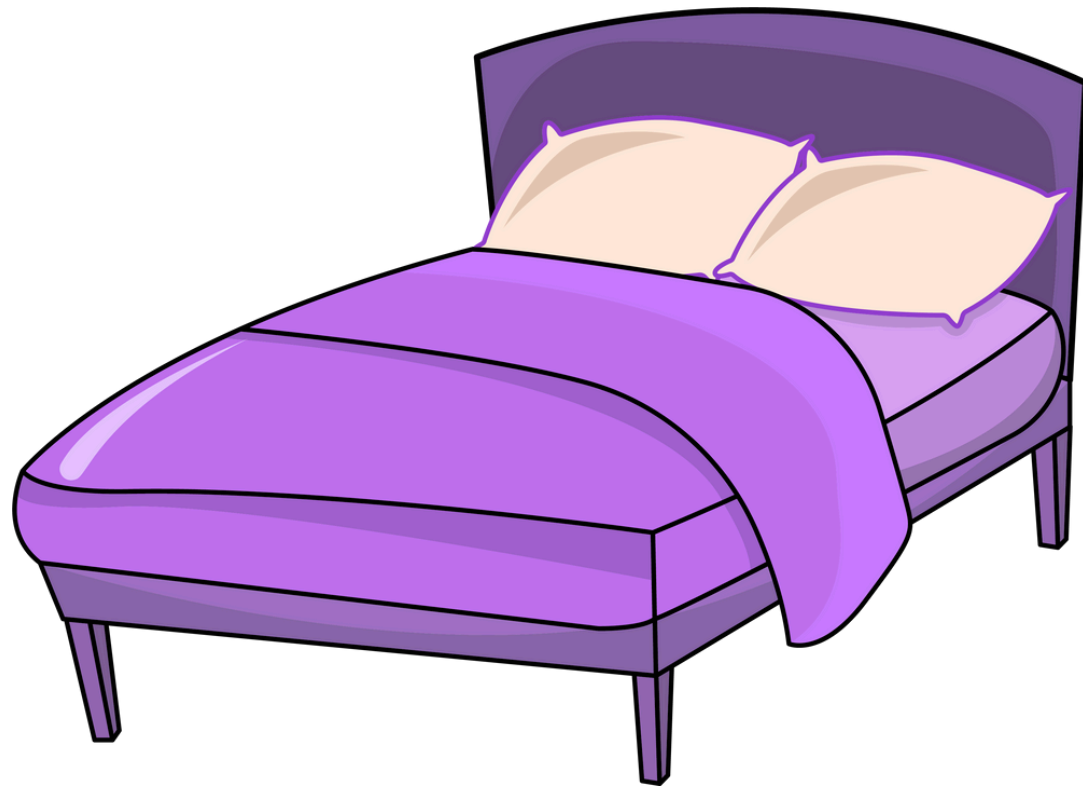

SCAN HERE

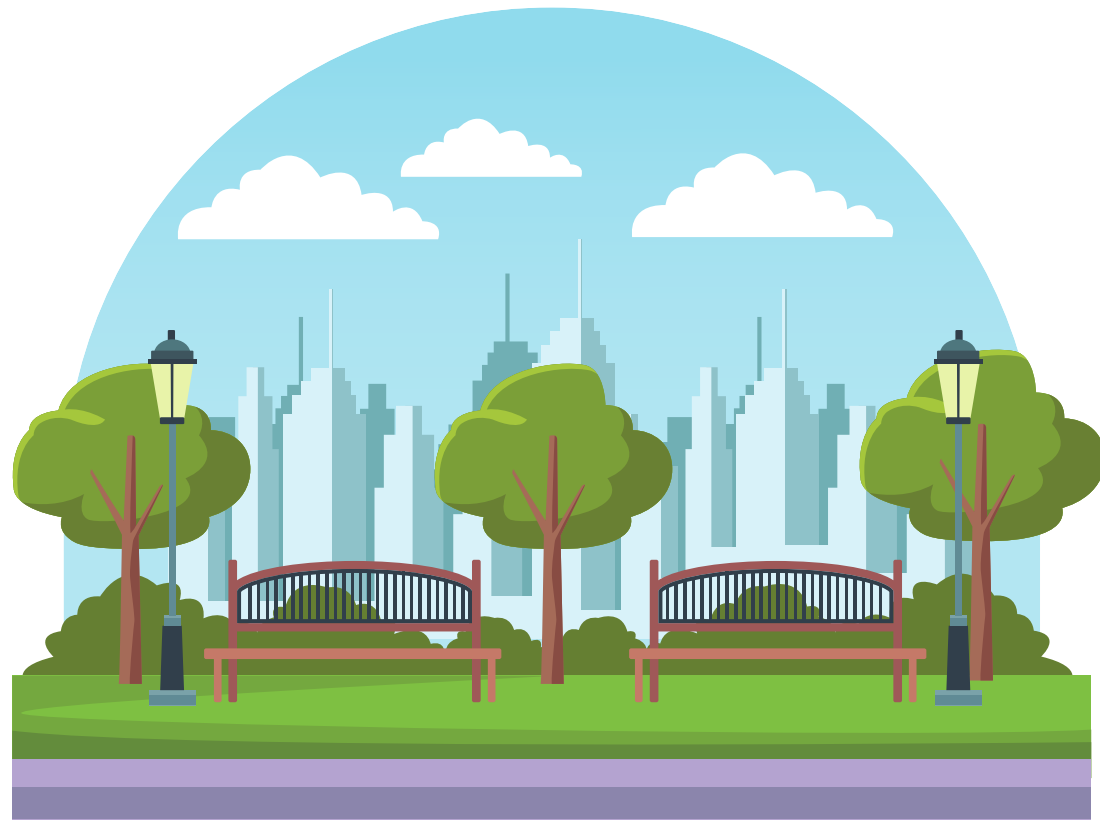

Retell the text using the pictures.

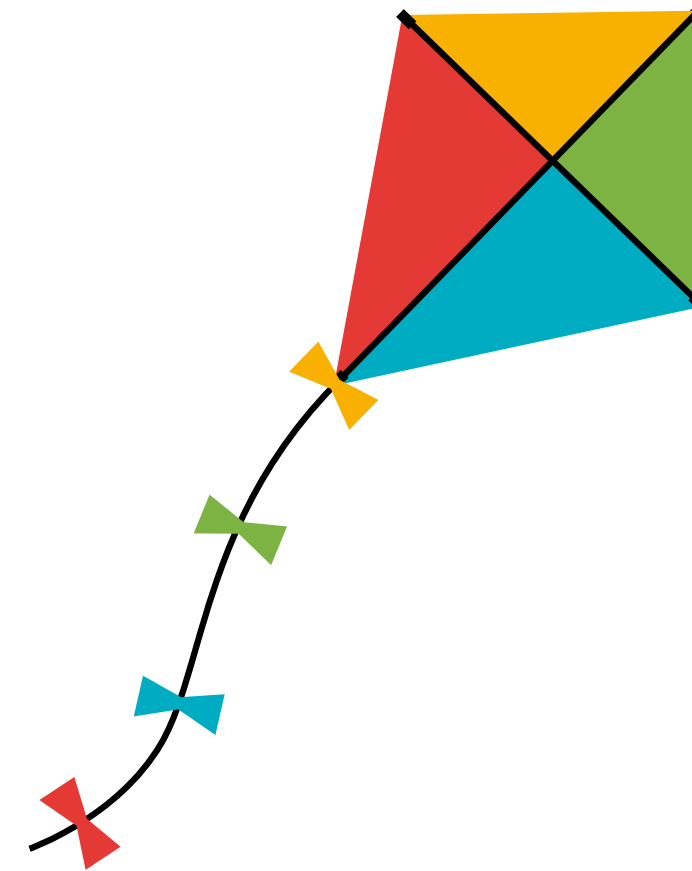

Retell the text using the pictures.

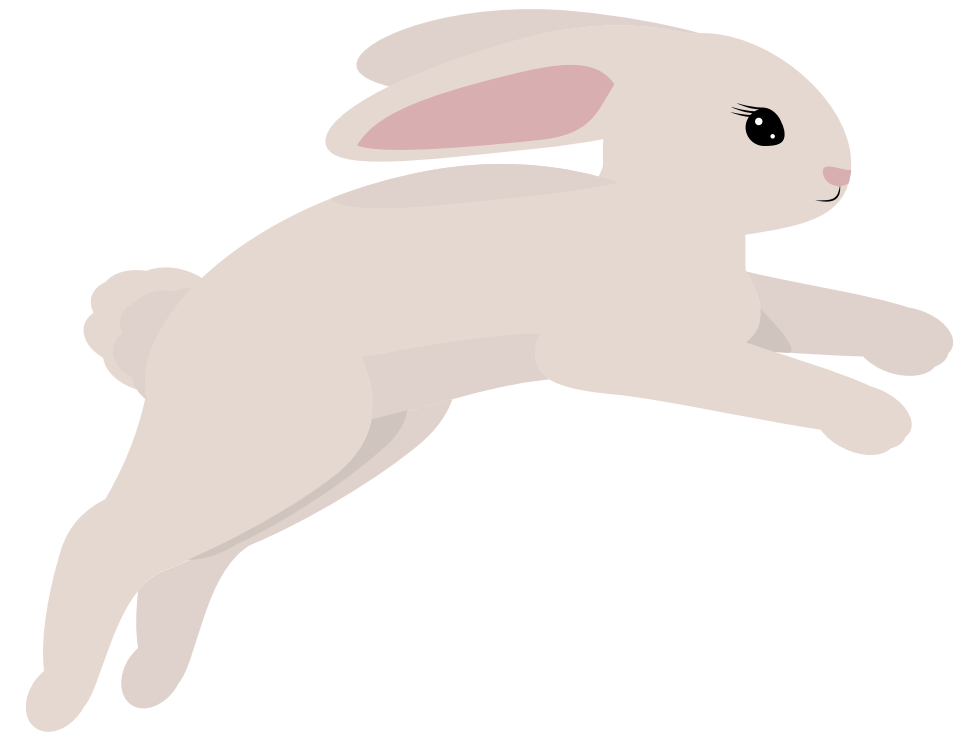

Retell the text using the pictures.

Retell the text using the pictures.

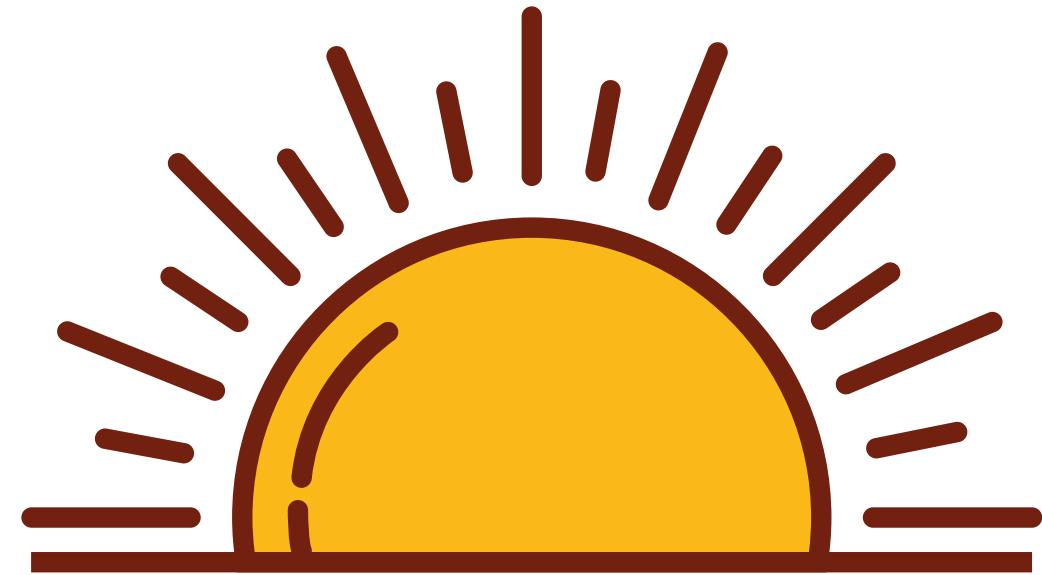

Retell the text using the pictures.

Retell the text using the pictures.

Retell the text using the pictures.

Create your own text about one of the characters below. Use the text about Emma as an example. Then present it.

